The grasslands ponds are still producing angling opportunities for those anglers with cabin fever. Ice conditions vary tremendously from pond to pond. Ice conditions varied from 4"-15".

Hunting Report:

Try to find a warmer morning to call coyotes. Coyotes this time of the year can be called with decent success. Remember to keep the wind in your favor and keep your movement to a minimum. Many coyotes this time of the year have heard and seen it all.

Fisherman are still finding angling opportunities on Lake Francis Case. Ice in Cedar Shore is up to 20" thick. Ice on Pontoon Bay varied with the average being around 6". As the reservoir fills look for these ice levels to fluctuate tremendously.

Hunting Report:

As many hunting season draw to a close, now is the time hunters can start preparing for next years' hunting season. This is a great time to make of list of things you used, needed or even wanted. Spreading the list out evenly over the next 10 months is easier on the budget. Now is also a great time to thank landowners for allowing permission on to private property. It is also recommended to find a nice day to remove portable deer stands from the field to protect costly straps and cables from being weathered.

Reminder: Portable deer stands need to be removed from lands owned, leased or controlled by GFP no later than February 15th

Fishing Report: See Missouri River Report below.

Cottonwood Lake: No activity

Lake Oahe: Fishing has been slow, but there has been some success. Mostly fishermen have stayed off the ice due to the warm weather degrading ice conditions and making the ice very inconsistent. If you venture out on the ice, please use caution.

Hunting Report:

Goose Hunting: Goose hunting in Sully County has been extremely hit or miss with a lot of miss. The warm weather has melted the snow and opened up the water. So the geese are very spread out and have become difficult to pattern. The goose season is quickly coming to a close, and it winds down on February 15th this year.
